GUIDANCE IN ATTAINING A DOCTORATE IN PSYCHOLOGY FOR STUDENTS FROM UNDERREPRESENTED GROUPS

April 24, 2020
University of MS
Oxford, MS

The UM Psychology Department is pleased to invite underrepresented students (racial/ethnic minorities, low-income, first generation) to spend a day networking with faculty and graduate students and learning about ongoing research projects in the department.

The event will showcase the values and strengths of UM’s doctoral programs in clinical and experimental psychology while also providing an inside scoop on the graduate student experience.

A limited number of travel and housing awards are available.

Application Deadline:
March 1, 2020

Breakfast and Introduction to Graduate Programs

Information Sessions:
- Preparing for graduate school
- Working with diverse populations
- Preparing a personal statement
- Selling your prior experiences

Department/Clinic Tour

Pizza Lunch

UM Graduate Student Research Presentations

Keynote Diversity Speaker:
Laurie O'Brien, PhD

If an applicant requires special assistance relating to a disability, please contact Tiffany Gerlinger at 662-915-7383 or psych@olemiss.edu