Part-Time Paid Summer Teaching Positions
For Classrooms of Students with ADHD

Penn State Health is recruiting two individuals for part time work as classroom teachers in the 2019 Summer Treatment Program (STP) for children with attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD).

The STP is an empirically supported treatment program for 7-11 year old children with ADHD, ODD, and/or CD that is implemented in a summer day camp setting. The STP incorporates an academic classroom and an art classroom. Teachers are needed to lead these classroom.

Details about the positions:

- Teachers will lead classrooms of 12 children with ADHD
  - One teacher will lead a classroom focused on academic subjects
  - One teacher will lead a classroom focused on art projects
- Classroom aides are available to assist within each classroom if teacher desires
- Camp will be held at the Penn State Harrisburg Campus in Middletown, PA.
- Hours of employment: Typically Monday through Thursday from 8 AM until 12:30 PM, but these times may vary
  - Two hours of direct instruction
  - Two hours of preparation and wrap up
  - Additional hours may be available if desired
  - July 4th is an unpaid holiday
- Dates of employment
  - Training will begin around Monday June 10th and continue through June 22, 2019 (dates and times flexible)
  - Treatment Camp is aimed to begin approximately on Monday June 24th through Thursday July 25th (dates and times flexible)
  - Post-camp wrap up is set to be around Monday July 29th through Thursday August 1st (dates and times flexible)
- Pay is commensurate with experience

To apply go to:

E-mail ABC@pennstatehealth.psu.edu with questions or for more information